

GEO Data providers workshop 20, 21 April 2017, Florence, Italy

Organization: Instituto Geográfico Nacional (IGN), Madrid (SPAIN)

Data provider short description. IGN produce the Geospatial Reference Information (GRI) fundamental in order to georeferencing and geolocation all the Public Information (thematic information) from the maximum to minimum resolution and accuracy

How do you contribute to the GEO Vision?

Facilitating at maximum resolution open data of GRI for all final users

Type of organization: governmental- NGO- UN..etc.

Governmental

Type of data:

GRI: Orthoimages, DEM, Land Cover/Use, Transportation network, Hydrographic network, Urban Settlements.

Data policy adopted by your organization: Open data (free of charge)

Already brokered or not by the GCI: No

For newcomers:

- Why you are interested to join GEO- GCI
 - To collaborate producing only once from the bottom, all necessary GRI to final user in order to harmonized and facilitate a Coherent Public System.
- How GEO could benefit your organization
 - To share in close collaboration this principles where the most important beneficiary will be the society